

Salt Therapy

The healing atmosphere of the salt caves has been acknowledged for several centuries. Our company brings it to you by introducing the salt therapy in salt rooms and salt cocoons.

Salt therapy is the method of treatment which stimulates the natural salt cave microclimate with the help of the dry salt aerosol generators, also known as halogenerators.

Our company has experience in salt therapy since 1998. In 2002, we started with our own manufacturing, design and authorship of halogenerators, salt rooms and salt cocoons.

The curative effects of the dry salt aerosol generated by IIRIS halogenerators are widely recognized all over the world. By 2011, we have representatives in over 30 countries. In Estonia, our country of origin, there are about 60 working salt rooms in spas, rehabilitation centers, hospitals and nurseries.
